

Alejandra Nagel

Senior Partner

Alejandra joined the firm in 2019 and is a Partner in New York, playing a key role in securing successful partner placements across noteworthy deals. She collaborates with elite law firms nationwide, with a focus on the California and New York markets. Drawing from her experience at Latham & Watkins, Alejandra brings extensive knowledge of the legal marketplace and leverages her big law background to better serve our clients.

Alejandra's strong interpersonal skills make her a valuable asset to our team. She has forged meaningful relationships with firm chairs and practice group leaders and works hand in hand with them to achieve successful hires. She strategically identifies opportunities in the lateral market and works tirelessly to help our clients attain their needs and growth initiatives. She was recognized in Lawdragon's 2025 list of "100 Global Leaders In Legal Strategy & Consulting."

What sets Alejandra apart is her personable and sincere approach, along with her commitment to understanding each partner's practice and long-term goals. With a deep understanding of the market and a keen awareness of legal trends, she provides valuable insights to coach candidates through every step of the recruiting process.

Alejandra earned her undergraduate degree from Loyola Marymount University. Originally from Minnesota, she now resides in New York, where she enjoys hiking with her dog, traveling, and horseback riding.
