

Jillian Storms

Managing Director

Jillian joined CenterPeak as a Knowledge Manager in 2024. With years of experience around the recruiting industry, Jillian understands the nuances of connecting people with opportunities and is committed to matching top legal talent with the right firms and companies.

Jillian combines empathy, communication, and a personalized approach to legal recruiting. This unique skill set allows her to work closely with clients and candidates, ensuring each match is not just about qualifications, but also about long-term success and cultural fit.

Outside of work, Jillian enjoys spending time on the water with her family in Greenwich, CT. She and her husband have two children, three dogs, and a cat. She graduated from Boston College in 2005.
