

Marc Needoff

Senior Partner

Marc Needoff is a Senior Partner at CenterPeak, specializing in the strategic placement of partner-level talent and practice groups across the highly competitive London legal market. He plays a key role in advising AmLaw 100, elite international, and leading UK firms on their strategic lateral hiring and platform expansion mandates.

With deep experience in legal search since 2012, Marc is a recognized expert in engineering complex, high value moves that are immediately accretive to firm revenue. His practice is focused on placing individuals and teams who operate at the convergence of Private Capital, high-stakes disputes, and the regulatory landscape.

Formerly a Managing Director at SSQ, Marc gained a reputation for delivering on challenging, mandate-driven searches and consistently placing equity partners into the world's largest law firms. At CenterPeak, he leverages proprietary metrics and strategic counsel to ensure every move is not merely transactional, but a defining step in a partner's career and a significant advance in a firm's market power.
