Lea May

Knowledge Manager

Lea May is a Knowledge Manager at CenterPeak, where she supports the firm's work advising leading lawyers and law firms on strategic lateral partner moves across the Am Law 100 market.

Prior to joining CenterPeak, Lea built a diverse career spanning law, consulting, and sales leadership. She owned and operated a legal consulting business, helping clients achieve their strategic and professional objectives, and served as Vice President of Sales for a health and wellness company, where she led and developed a high-performing sales organization.

Earlier in her career, Lea served as an Assistant Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the Criminal Bureau. Across these roles, she developed a reputation for building strong client relationships and helping individuals navigate important professional decisions.

At CenterPeak, Lea draws on her combination of legal and business experience to support the firm's recruiting efforts, with a focus on long-term alignment, practice strength, and platform fit in an increasingly competitive legal market.

Lea earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Southern Methodist University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock William H. Bowen School of Law.
